

INT. MEDICAL CENTER #708 OF THE SHORE OF TRANQUILITY CITY.
PEDIATRIC OFFICE - DAY

In the office: the boy KYLE (9 years old), the boy's mother - MILLY, senior doctor SIMON and nurse ISHAN. Millie is wearing a plush tracksuit, Kyle is wearing jeans and a hoodie, which is smeared with dirt, as his face. Simon and Ishan are wearing medical uniforms of the Colonial Moon Medical Service.

Millie stands next to Kyle, looking worried. Simon puts his hand on Kyle's shoulder, leads the boy to the couch and tells him to sit down. Ishan is observing.

SIMON
(gently and calmly)
Sit down. Don't be afraid.

KYLE
Mom?

It's all right, Kyle.

Kyle sits down slowly and carefully. Millie sits down next to him. The boy rubs his eyes, they are watering heavily, he regularly glances at Milly.

SIMON
Kyle, do you feel any pain?

KYLE
Eyes are itchy.

MILLY
(to Simon)
He also said that he had a constant ringing in his ears. As if he hears a motor.

KYLE
And something smells strange. In here too.

SIMON
I am Senior Doctor Simon. I will examine you, and we will understand what happened.

Kyle nods.

Ishan, hand me the ophthalmoscope, please.

Ishan hands Simon the ophthalmoscope (a device for examining the eyes: a lens + flashlight), smiles at Kyle, and walks away from the couch.

Simon carefully examines Kyle's eyes with the ophthalmoscope.

Let's see.

Simon leans over to the boy's face without the device to get a closer look. Kyle lightly sniffs Simon's skin.

(to Milly)

It seems to be just dust.

(to Kyle)

Okay, now let's look at your ears.

Simon examines Kyle's left ear and moves to the right. As Simon moves his hand in front of Kyle's face, Kyle takes a sharp sniff.

Kyle's pupils dilate, his breathing quickens, he starts screaming and waving his arms, saliva is flying from his mouth.

Simon tries to calm the boy down - puts arms around the boy to prevent him from moving. Ishan watches this, numb with the shock. Milly jumps up from the couch, frightened.

(nervously)

Kyle! Kyle! What are you doing?

It's mom. Calm down!

Kyle continues to lash out and scream. Simon's expression changes from surprised to scared.

MILLY (CONT'D)

Kyle! Stop it! Kyle!

Simon turns his head to Ishan, barely able to hold Kyle.

SIMON

Why are you standing there?! Help!

Kyle frees one arm. Ishan jumps up to Kyle and tries to grab his free arm, but Kyle punches the nurse in the stomach. Ishan bends and falls on the floor. Milly leans against the wall and watches Kyle as if she's hypnotized.

(semi-whisper, mumble)

Kyle, Kyle, Kyle. My little one.

Kyle frees his other hand, frees himself from Simon's grip. Kyle pulls his legs to his stomach and kicks Simon with both legs. Simon flies to the opposite wall, smashes the glass board for the vision test, and falls to the floor. He doesn't move.

Ishan's looks horrified. Millie screams, gasping for breath, her screams getting louder. The sounds of blows on the floor and the walls are heard.

(on the edge of volume, breaking off)
What are you doing?! Stop it! Stop!
No!

Ishan tries to stand up, he holds his stomach. Ishan slips and gets to his feet. Kyle's satisfied sounds, the sounds of bites can be heard.

Ishan runs to the exit from the office, stumbles, gets up and runs out into the corridor. Milly's screams turn into gurgles.

(After this cutscene, the opening mission of the main quest begins. The mission takes place at the Colonial Guard ship heading to the Moon)
